COURSE DESCRIPTION

This conference will present a selection of the dilemmas which patients present to their physicians and behavioral health professionals in clinical practice. The course is designed to be helpful to all physicians and behavioral health professionals who see both adult and pediatric patients in a clinical consultative setting. The conference is presented jointly with the Alaska Chapter of the American Psychological Association. Participants wanting AK-PA credit will need to pay a separate $40 fee to AK-PA for continuing education credit from AK-PA.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the end of this course, participants will have gained a more comprehensive understanding of current approaches to their sexual concerns which patients present in clinical practice.

REGISTRATION

Early registration is appreciated, if possible, before Thursday, May 11, 2006. Registration will only be accepted on the day of the conference, provided space is available. There is no registration fee for employees of Providence Health System. The fees for physicians and other health care providers are listed on the registration form. Please register by mailing or faxing a completed registration form with payment (as applicable). You may register in person at the Providence Alaska Learning Institute 7:00am-4:30pm Monday through Friday. You may fax your registration form to (907) 261-4911. Fax registrations require payment (if applicable) with a 16-digit credit card number, expiration date and signature. Make checks payable to PAMC.

CANCELLATION POLICY

The course fee includes a registration component of $10.00 which reflects administrative costs in producing the course and is not refundable. The remainder of the course fee is refundable if cancellation notice is received by phone (907-261-3011) or fax (907-261-4911) up to one working day before the program. Otherwise, the fee is transferable to any course at Providence Alaska Medical Center within one year.

ACCOMMODATION

Persons having a disability for which reasonable accommodation can be made, and wishing to attend the course, are requested to contact Providence Alaska Learning Institute on or before Monday, May 8, 2006.

CREDIT

Providence Health System Alaska is accredited by the Alaska State Medical Association to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Providence Health System Alaska certifies that this continuing medical education activity meets the criteria for 7.0 hours on May 12, 2006 and 5.0 hours on May 13, 2006 in Category I of the Physicians Recognition Award, given by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education of the American Medical Association. These lectures meet the criteria of the Alaska Board of Nursing as acceptable continuing education for nursing relicensure in the State of Alaska. (8.1 nsg contact hours on May 12, 2006 and 5.8 nsg contact hours on May 13, 2006) This workshop is co-sponsored by the Alaska Psychological Association (AK-PA) for CE credits (see registration). AK-PA is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer continuing education programs for psychologists. Participants wanting AK-PA credit will need to pay a separate $40 fee to AK-PA for continuing education credit from AK-PA.

CERTIFICATES

Continuing Medical Education certificates will be mailed to participants after the course. Credit hours will only be given for the educational sessions at which participants record their attendance. Attendance is verified by signing in once each day and completion of a registration form and course evaluation. AK-PA will mail a certificate to participants who register for AK-PA credits. Eleven (11) continuing education credits will be available to participants who attend the entire two-day conference.
