

Survey Report Details

Clone of Survey: Alaska Psychologists' Views on PSYPACT

1. Are you currently licensed as a psychologist in Alaska?

Item	Responses
Yes — Active license	32 (89%)
Yes — Retired or inactive license	0 (0%)
No	4 (11%)

2. Do you currently provide services to patients located in Alaska?

Item	Responses
Yes — Primarily in Alaska	28 (78%)
Yes — Alaska and other locations	6 (17%)
No	2 (6%)

3. Was your doctoral program APA- or CPA-accredited at the time of graduation?

Item	Responses
Yes	24 (67%)
No	8 (22%)
Unsure	4 (11%)

4. Do you support Alaska adopting PSYPACT?

Item	Responses
Strongly support	20 (57%)
Somewhat support	3 (9%)
Neutral / unsure	4 (11%)
Somewhat oppose	3 (9%)
Strongly oppose	5 (14%)

5. If Alaska joined PSYPACT, what effect would it have on your practice?

Item	Responses
Major positive effect	11 (31%)
Moderate positive effect	4 (11%)
No significant effect	13 (36%)
Moderate negative effect	3 (8%)
Major negative effect	3 (8%)
Unsure	2 (6%)

6. How likely would you be to participate in PSYPACT if eligible?

Item	Responses
Very likely	16 (44%)
Somewhat likely	3 (8%)
Unsure	5 (14%)
Unlikely	4 (11%)
Very unlikely	3 (8%)
Not eligible	5 (14%)

7. Which potential benefit is MOST important?

Item	Responses
------	-----------

Increased access for rural Alaskans	10 (28%)
Continuity of care for relocating patients	18 (50%)
Access to specialized services	2 (6%)
Support for military members and families	0 (0%)
Professional mobility	3 (8%)
Recruitment/retention of psychologists	1 (3%)
None / no major benefit	1 (3%)
Unsure	1 (3%)

8. Which concern is MOST important?

Item	Responses
Reduced oversight of out-of-state providers	3 (8%)
Enforcement of Alaska laws/standards	1 (3%)
Insurance reimbursement issues	5 (14%)
Competition from out-of-state providers	3 (8%)
Impact on local practices	2 (6%)
Cultural competence concerns	8 (22%)
Exclusion of non-APA/CPA graduates	9 (25%)
No major concerns	5 (14%)
Unsure	0 (0%)

9. Please share any additional thoughts or recommendations (optional)

Number of responses: 17